

A How to Guide for filling out the Provincial Building Permit Application Form

INTRODUCTION

Building and Plumbing permits are required to make sure construction is done to a safe level as prescribed by the Ontario Building Code. This guide will help you through the application process to help you get a permit before you start construction.

The Ontario Building Code says what is required for a permit application. The following are the main parts that are required as part of the application:

- 1) Completed application form,
- 2) Schedule 1 or 2,
- 3) Authorization from the owner if you are not the owner, and making an application on their behalf
- 4) Payment of permit fees,
- 5) Applicable Law approvals if required,
- 6) Required Drawings.

A complete application will allow the building department to review (10 business days for most single family dwelling projects). Complete applications help expedite the process and reduce the need for follow up; incomplete applications may delay the permit issuance. After the review is complete and the permit issued and picked up, construction can start.

APPLICATION FORM

The following is a short description of the sections of the application form with examples.

A. Project Information

This section is where the applicant describes the project/location. It is required that the address be properly identified in this section. Also it is required to write the construction value estimate.

B. Purpose of application

This section describes the reason of the permit application with a "X" mark beside the purpose. Also indicate the current and proposed use of the building and a description of the work to be done.

C. Applicant

This section identifies who is applying for the permit and provides contact information so that we may reach you (name, address and phone number). If an email and fax number are available, is to be shown.

D. Owner (if different from applicant)

If the applicant is not the owner of the building/property, it is required to give the contact information of the owner. This also requires the applicant to get authorization from the owner to apply for a permit. Please see the authorization form.

SCHEDULE 1

The Ontario Building Code requires that all designs submitted as part of a permit application are done by a qualified person but there are exemption (refer to the drawing section in the guide for more information). To identify who did the design, the Ontario government created a form called the Schedule 1: Designer Information.

Schedule 1: Designer Information

A completed Schedule 1 form is required as part of a permit application (a sewage system requires a Schedule 2 form). If a design can and has been done by a house owner, the owner is the designer and must fill out the Schedule 1 form. The house owner would declare that the work is exempt from registration since he/she is the property owner. For an application to be complete, the entire form must be filled.

For Section C, the designer has a Building Code Identification Number. The designer will check the boxes that apply to the project and they must be qualified to design.
*If you are the homeowner that completed your own drawings then leave this section blank.

For Section D, the designer is to complete this section with their qualifications.
*If you are the owner taking responsibility for the drawings, check the 3rd box and exemption for allowing the work is filled in as Owner.

SCHEDULE 2

The Ontario Building Code requires that all sewage systems be installed by a qualified installer but there is an exemption. To identify who is installing the sewage system. The Ontario government created a form called the Schedule 2: Sewage System Installer Information.

REQUIRED DRAWINGS

One of the most crucial parts of a building permit application are the associated drawings. These drawings allow the department(s) to review the proposed project prior to construction. The more complete the drawings are, the better the review can be and the more items can be identified prior and rectified to construction.

The Ontario Building Code essentially states that all designs forming part of a building permit application must be prepared by a qualified designer; however, it allows for a few key exemptions. Some of the exemptions to requiring the use of a qualified designer are:

- Construction/renovations to a house by the person who is the owner (not more than 2 storeys and with no dwelling above another dwelling) (excluding HVAC);
- Deck serving a house which is owned by the person; and
- Accessory building serving a house which is owned by the person, area not more than 50 m² (538 ft²).

*Note, that the above list is only short list of examples and that the Ontario Building Code Div. C Part 3 is to be consulted for the exemptions.

Please contact the building department if you require more information on what qualifications are needed and for help on how to find a qualified designer. A qualified designer will have a Building Code Identification Number, or be a registered member of the Professional Engineers Ontario or Ontario Association of Architects.

Required Drawings

Although a homeowner may be exempt from requiring a design from a qualified person, if a homeowner decided to create their own drawings, it is the responsibility of the homeowner to endure that the drawings contain sufficient information and that the design is to the Ontario Building Code. For this reason, it is recommended that if the project is more complex than one's ability, that the help from a designer be considered.

List of plans and working drawings, as defined in the Building Code, required to accompany the application:

- Site Plan
- Foundation Plan
- Framing Plan
- Section and Details
- Electrical Plan
- Plumbing Plan
- Lot grading Plan
- Floor Plans
- Roof Plan
- Elevation Plan
- Heating and Ventilation Plan
- Fire alarm, Sprinkler, Standpipe Plan

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What can result from not obtaining a building permit?

Answer: It is unlawful to commence construction without a building permit. If the work does not comply with the Ontario Building Code requirements, costly repairs may be required to gain compliance, removal of work done not in compliance may be required, the building permit application fee may be increased and legal action may be initiated by the Building Department to gain compliance. If you are still not certain whether your project requires a building permit, contact the Building Department. Our staff will be able to assist you in making that determination.

2. Where can I find information on Ontario Building Code items?

Answer: The Ontario Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing is the governing body that administers the Ontario Building Code. Their website, available at <https://www.ontario.ca/page/ministry-municipal-affairs-housing>, contains not only building code information, but also other items as training information and related publication. If a copy of the Ontario Building Code is desired, it can be found online through e-laws.

3. How long is a permit valid for?

Answer: The time frame in which the project must be substantially started is six (6) months. From this point, you have 1 year to complete the project. If more time is needed, you may write to the Chief Building Official stating the reasons for requiring an extension and he may choose to grant more time to complete the project. If construction has not started within 6 months, or if at any point construction has stopped for a significant amount of time, the Chief Building Official may choose to void the permit.

4. What kind of construction does NOT typically require a permit?

Answer: The following is a list of projects that generally do not require a permit; however, construction must still comply with the Ontario Building Code and associated Application Laws (for example, Zoning By-Law):

- Re-shingling of a roof
- Replacing doors or window of equal size
- Kitchen or bathroom cabinets (no plumbing)
- New flooring, painting and decorating
- Detached accessory buildings less than 10m² (108 ft²)
- Replacement of plumbing fixtures with NO modification to the plumbing system
- Replacement of heating equipment with NO modification to the distribution system
